

One Last Look
THE OCEANIAN

OCEANA HIGH SCHOOL

2002

F. Stephen Anderson,

Principal 1999-2002

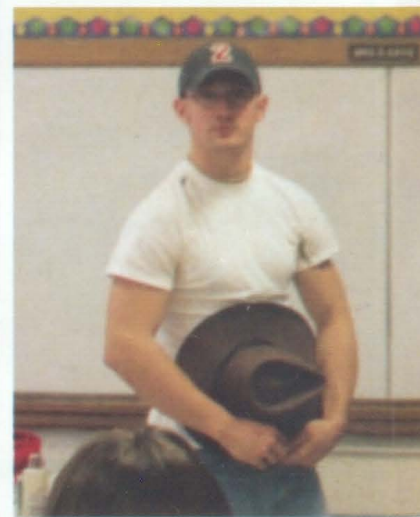

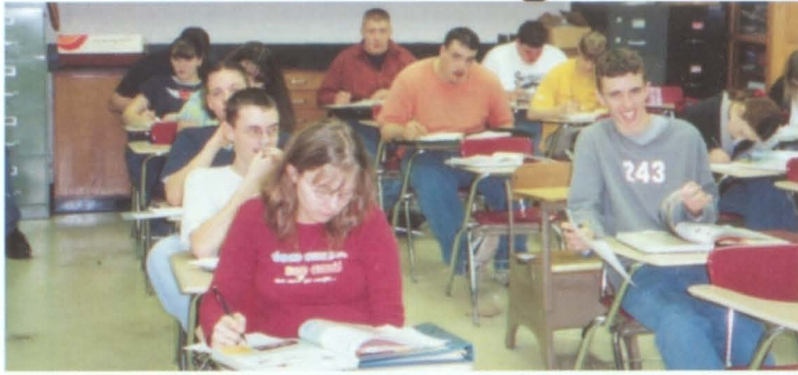

It is with great sadness and reflection that the doors of Oceana High School will forever close. We have a long history of pride and excellence that the students, alumni, faculty, and community will always be proud of.

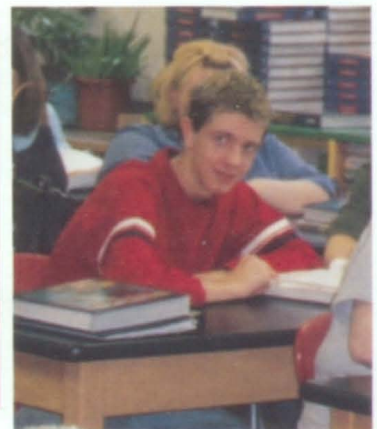

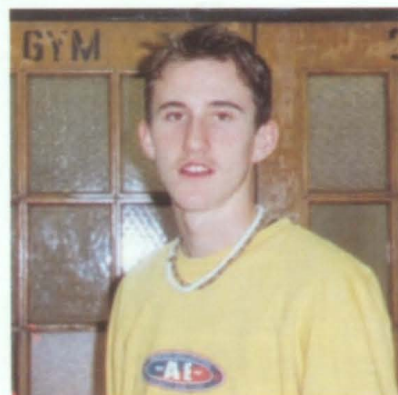

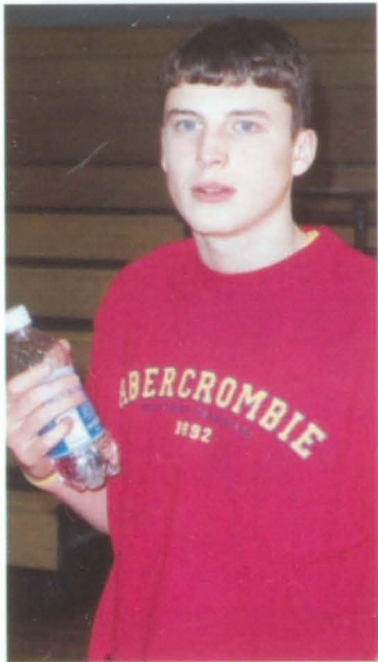

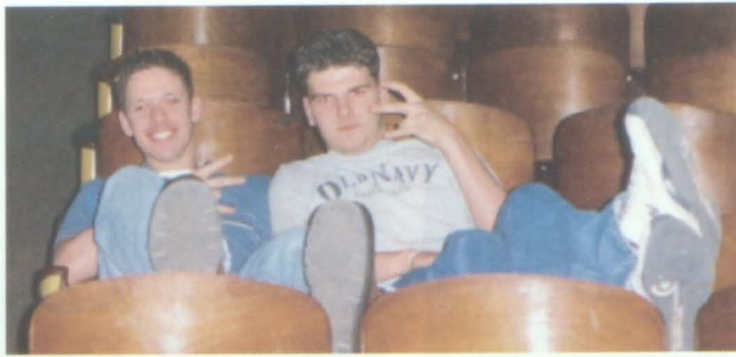

Graduates of Oceana High School have made an impact on the labor force, have risen to the top in their chosen professions, and have become outstanding citizens of the communities in which they live. We now look with excitement and enthusiasm toward the future and we know that the Class of 2002 will carry on the rich traditions of Oceana High School.

To honor the lives of the innocent citizens who were killed in the attack on the United States, we proudly display the American flag.

With disbelief, we mourn. With hope, we pray.

With pride, we rebuild...one family at a time

Devon Stewart

Devon Stewart was one of 80 sophomores from throughout West Virginia selected to attend the Governor's School for the Arts, a residential program providing individual and in-depth group instruction for exceptional arts students. Applicants had to meet a high academic requirement, interview and audition to attend the three-week summer school held at West Liberty State College. Devon was one of only 16 students chosen to participate in the vocal music category of the school.

for the
Precious Memories

FANCY STREET

I've walked down fancy street
holding little bity hands.

I've stolen kisses at the ice cream stand.

I've played games till
my back would break.
Remembring I must later bake
a birthday cake.

I've mended broken toys and made them like new.
Heard their sweet little voices mommy I love you.

I've picked them up after they fell heard them say kiss it mommy and make it well.

I've held them in my arms so very thight didn't forget to kiss them good night.

I've gone to their bed room
when they couldn't sleep.
told them fairy tale stories, and help them count sheep.

I've soothed little brows
when temperature were high.
held back the sobs, so they wouldn't hear me cry.

I've wiped up spilled milk
cleaned grimy little faces.
But I can't think of anyone with whom I'd trade places.

I'm a millionaire, these memories are mine to keep.
All because God has blessed me to walk down fancy street. Julie R. Hs

We love you and
are very proud of you!

Never Forget

Your presence is a gift to the world,
You're unique and one of a kind.
Your life can be what you want it to be -
Take it one day at a time.

Count your blessings, not your troubles,
And you'll make it through what comes along.
Within you are so many answers,
Understand, have courage, be strong.

Don't put limits on yourself,
Your dreams are waiting to be realized.
Don't leave important decisions to chance -
Reach for your peak, your goal, and your prize.

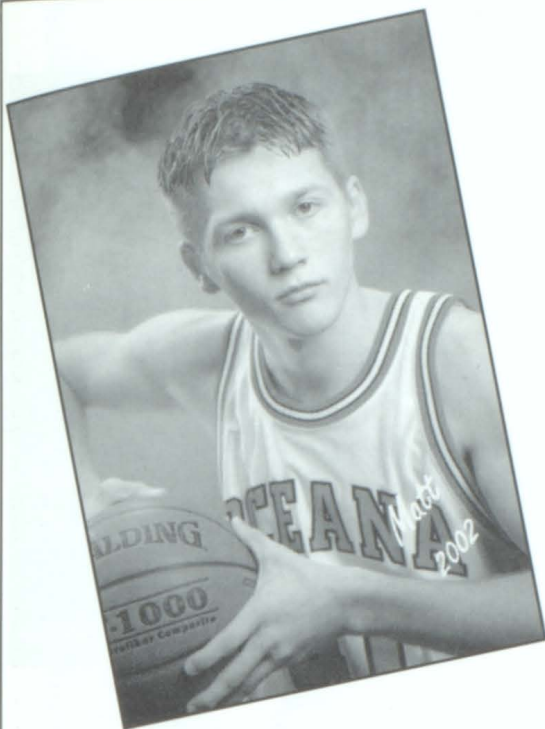

Nothing wastes more energy than worrying -
The longer a problem is carried, the heavier it gets.
Don't take things too seriously -
Live a life of serenity, not a life of regrets.

Remember that a little love goes a long way -
Remember that a lot goes forever.
Remember that friendship is a wise investment.
Life's treasures are people - together.

Have health, hope and happiness,
Take the time to wish on a star,
And don't ever forget for ever a day -
How very special You are!

Love Always,
Dad, Mom and Amanda

Well Crystal,
the time has come for you, our little angelpie, to graduate.
I can't believe it's here so soon. It seems only yesterday that I was taking you to school your first day of kindergarten. I look back and think of all the special times we have had having you as our daughter and how blessed we are to have seen you grow into the beautiful girl you are. I know you will have a bright future, you love the :Lord and put God first in you life. I know he will bless you and let you go as far as you want in life.

I will miss all the little things that you did everyday and all the times I had to wait my turn for the bathroom. Keep God first in your life always and you'll go far and all your dreams will come true. We are so very proud of you!

Love always and forever,
Mom and Dad

Dear Daughter,
 Keep reaching for the stars! Day by day, year by year, I've watched you grow. Grabbing hold of life with grace and determination making it your own, molding your dreams into reality...
 Keep reaching for the stars and ultimately they will be YOURS~
